Business Overhead Expense Insurance

For many small business owners, having Business Overhead Expense (BOE) Insurance can help ensure their business can continue to function should they become disabled and unable to work. It can pay for overhead expenses, including office rent, employees' salaries, insurance premiums, utility bills, premiums for business and malpractice insurance and accountant fees.

Q. Who is eligible for coverage?

A. American Bar Association members age 64 or under, who are actively at work on a full-time basis for at least 30 hours per week are eligible to apply.

Q. What benefit amounts are available?

A. Members under age 65 may apply for up to $15,000 per month (in $100 increments with a $500 minimum monthly benefit).

Q. What types of expenses are covered?

A. Eligible covered expenses include:

- Office rent
- Employees' salaries and insurance premiums
- Utility bills, including electric, heat, water, gas and telephone
- Premiums for business and malpractice insurance
- Accountant fees
- The monthly average of taxes and mortgage interest payments on the business premises you own or lease and use in your profession.
- Other fixed overhead expenses that are normal and customary in operating your business.

Q. How does this plan define disability?

A. You are considered to be totally disabled when you cannot perform the substantial and material duties of your regular occupation due to injury or sickness and are under the care or supervision of a licensed physician.

Q. How long do I have to wait before the benefits begin?

A. 30-day waiting period.

Q. How long will benefits last?

A. Benefits will continue until you receive the equivalent of up to 12 or 24 monthly benefit payments depending on the option you select. Also, premium payments for Disabled Members are waived while benefits are payable.

Q. How much does this plan cost?

A. Economical group rates — Quarterly premiums
